Plantation Village, the newest addition to Dorado Beach, will be distinguished by its centerpiece - Hacienda Gardens. Inspired by the site's history as a plantation, and borrowing from 19th century Puerto Rican culture, Hacienda Gardens will be a realm of lyrical landscapes, exciting water features, and picturesque structures evoking a historic island ruin. Hacienda Gardens will encompass over 30,000 square meters, connecting the Village's Spa, Clubhouse, Town Center and kid-friendly Water Playgrounds through a series of special gardens for visitors of all ages and interests. Key to the success of Hacienda Gardens will be the creation of separate, defined spaces, targeted to different types of users. As the physical and communal center of Plantation Village, Hacienda Gardens will provide outstanding facilities for the recreation and relaxation of residents and visitors, and will help create value by creating community.

Opening planned for 2005
